Helen Keller Intl
Internship Announcement

Resilient Livelihood Intern
(Baltimore metro area preferred; other locations may be considered.)

Guided by the remarkable legacy of its co-founder, Helen Keller, Helen Keller Intl partners with communities that are striving to overcome longstanding cycles of poverty. By delivering the essential building blocks of good health, sound nutrition, and clear vision, we help millions of people create lasting change in their own lives. Working in 20 countries – across Africa, Asia, Europe, and the United States – and together with a global community of supporters, we ensure every person has the opportunity – as Helen did – to reach their true potential.

Scope of the Position
Reporting to the Vice President for Nutrition, The Resilient Livelihoods Intern will work with the SAPLING/BANI team and regional team to review and synthesize project documents and data related to resilient livelihoods. The intern will be responsible for identifying key processes and results contributing to resilient livelihoods and developing research briefs, documents, talking points with ppts, and/or other communications materials to disseminate findings and lessons learned.

Key Responsibilities
• Currently enrolled in a Master’s program in a relevant field (e.g. International Development, Agricultural Economics, Environmental Science, Public Health, etc.).
• Experience in reviewing and synthesizing project documents and data.
• Excellent communication and writing skills.
• Ability to work independently and collaboratively with a team.
• Willingness to travel to project sites (if possible).

Deliverables:
• A report summarizing the key processes and results contributing to resilient livelihoods in BANI/SAPLING.
• Research briefs, documents, talking points with ppts, and/or other communications materials to disseminate findings and lessons learned.
• Interview notes and site visit reports (if applicable).

Terms & Conditions
• 25-35 hours per week
• Temporary: June to August 2023 (start/end dates negotiable)

Compensation
The midpoint of the salary range for this position is $25 per hour, with a minimum of $21 per hour and a maximum of $29. Actual base salary will vary based upon, but not limited to, relevant experience, base salary of internal peers, and business specialty.

To Apply
Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to hki.interns@hki.org. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
